

Catalogue of Ashen Relics and Persons of Note

For the Consideration of Bidders Beneath a Sound Roof

Entry: Lucan Hollowmere

Name: Lucan Hollowmere Calling: Herbalist Birth: 296 AS

Lucan Hollowmere is entered here as a minor figure of the Ashen Era, though the hand that prepared this catalogue admits that “minor” is a judgment made by the living and not always trusted by the dead.

He serves as an Herbalist. Beyond that service, the records grow thin. No canonical physical details are recorded for Lucan Hollowmere. His visual identity is associated with the work of an herbalist: gathered leaves, bitter roots, stained vessels, and the patient sorting of what heals from what merely delays the grave.

His demeanor is unrecorded. Buyers are therefore cautioned against purchasing imagined gentleness, secret cruelty, or any other temperament attributed to him by tavern mouths and idle ink.

This entry concerns the recorded figure, not a likeness, relic, or sworn testimony. Any claimant who insists that Lucan Hollowmere’s hands, eyes, voice, or manner are known speaks beyond the catalogue.

Entry: Ederon Fellgard

Name: Ederon Fellgard Calling: Sapper Birth: 338 AS

Ederon Fellgard is likewise a minor figure of the Ashen Era. He serves as a Sapper, a calling whose tools are more readily recognized than the person who carries them.

No canonical physical traits or distinctive visual features are established for Ederon Fellgard. No canonical temperament or emotional disposition is established for Ederon Fellgard either. The catalogue will not supply what the record withholds. Buyers may inspect the absence of description and value it according to conscience, superstition, or purse.

No personal association between Ederon Fellgard and Lucan Hollowmere is certified in these pages.

Entry: The Sceptre of Final Winter

Designation: The Sceptre of Final Winter Class: Ward Forged: 87 AS Attunement cost: 55

The Sceptre of Final Winter is a ward forged in 87 AS. Its visual identity is that of a ward bearing the name The Sceptre of Final Winter; no further canonical form is established here. Let no eager bidder mistake ornament for evidence.

Attunement to it costs 55.

It radiates an atmosphere of cold finality. Whether this is warning, promise, or merely the faithful nature of the ward cannot be settled by the catalogue keeper. Those who approach are advised to bring steady hands and no expectation of warmth.

All entries remain subject to the silence of the surviving record.
