

Covenant of the Kept Flame and Issued Stores

Let this instrument be read before witnesses, seal-bearers, and any who doubt the virtue of written obligation.

This contract is made concerning Halvard Cindervale, a minor figure of the Ashen Era, and Sabelle Blackspire, a minor figure of the Ashen Era, born in 341 AS.

Halvard Cindervale serves as Lantern-Warden. His office is defined by the keeping and protection of a lantern. The maintained lantern and the presence of its keeper are the marks by which his office is known. He shall remain vigilant and dutiful in the discharge of that charge, permitting neither neglect nor needless endangerment to diminish the light entrusted to him.

Sabelle Blackspire serves as Quartermaster. Under this covenant, she shall attend to the recording, custody, and lawful issue of stores placed under her accounting. She shall receive Halvard Cindervale's requests concerning the lantern and its necessities, enter such requests in the proper tally, and release what is owed when the terms of this contract have been fulfilled. Any shortage, damage, or disputed entry shall be written plainly rather than concealed beneath courtesy.

No demand made under this contract shall compel Halvard Cindervale to abandon the lantern, surrender its protection, or permit its use in a manner contrary to his office. No issue made by Sabelle Blackspire shall be deemed complete until the receipt has been marked and acknowledged by the proper hand.

The parties acknowledge that the office of Lantern-Warden is a duty of keeping and protection, not a title worn for ornament. They further acknowledge that Quartermaster is a charge of measure, custody, and account, not a license for private taking.

For the sake of an honest record, no canonical physical features are established for Sabelle Blackspire; her visual identity is limited to her role as a Quartermaster. No canonical temperament is established for Sabelle Blackspire. Therefore, no judgment concerning her appearance or demeanor shall be entered into this covenant as fact. Let conduct be judged by written act alone.

Any disagreement shall be brought before the holding of the lantern and the inspection of the relevant account. Spoken recollection shall yield to a sound mark upon the record, unless that mark is proven false.

Halvard Cindervale shall keep the lantern. Sabelle Blackspire shall keep the account. Each shall preserve the other's lawful duty from confusion, waste, and deliberate misstatement.

Thus witnessed, sealed, and left beneath ash-proof binding.

Halvard Cindervale, Lantern-Warden Mark: _____

Sabelle Blackspire, Quartermaster Mark: _____