

Petition for the Safekeeping of Ignatz Fellgard and the Recognition of Emberdeep

To the Ashen Vanguard, House Morvain, the Silent Choir, the Iron-Ring Cartel, and the Bleeding Crown, and to any hand that still holds a seal in the Ashen Era:

We who set our marks below bring this petition concerning Ignatz Fellgard and Emberdeep, that neither man nor place be erased merely because the realm has grown accustomed to forgetting.

Ignatz Fellgard is a minor figure of the Ashen Era, yet a minor figure is still a figure beneath the same ash-dark sky. He serves as an Herbalist, and was born in 257 AS. Let the ledgers preserve these facts without adornment or correction. Let no clerk grant him a grander office, nor strip from him the honest name of his calling.

We further petition that no description be forced upon him where none has been established. The records hold no canonical physical traits or distinctive visual features for Ignatz Fellgard. They hold likewise no canonical temperament or emotional disposition. Therefore let rumor remain rumor. Let no scar, stature, habit, or secret mood be written as truth by those who have not the right to write it. His service may be recorded; his birth may be recorded; the rest must not be dressed up for the pleasure of officials.

As for Emberdeep, let its place be kept plainly: Emberdeep lies in the Shattered Vale. It is abandoned and outside the realm’s core holdings. Its visual identity is an empty settlement bearing the stark character of the Shattered Vale. Its atmosphere is silent and forsaken. These are not defects to be scrubbed from a map, nor invitations for some hungry power to claim whatever the dead have left behind. A place may be empty and still deserve a true name.

We ask, therefore, that any record joining Ignatz Fellgard to Emberdeep be kept with care, without invented kinship, rank, possession, or motive. If his name is found beside that place, let the record say only what is known, and let what is unknown remain sealed in its proper darkness.

The Sundering took enough from the realm. Do not aid it by making falsehood into history.

By ash, ink, and witness, we petition.
